

ARIZONA GOES TO THE MOVIES

A free talk by Arizona Historian Jim Turner

Sunday Feb 18 2 p.m.

Pinal County Historical Museum

From Douglas Fairbanks filming in Nogales in 1917 to “How the West Was Won” all over Arizona in 1963, the state of Arizona has been a photogenic favorite for movie producers.

Come see and hear about the plots and players and behind the scenes stories of Charles Laughton, Tom Mix, Jean Harlow, John Wayne and many more in the classic movies from silents to Cinemascope.

715 S. Main St.
